

BY BRANSTON & NORMAN,
177 THAMES STREET.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 27, 1850.

THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS commenced its November Term in this town Tuesday morning, Judge Staples presiding. The Judge delivered a clear charge to the Grand Jury on the nature of their duties, and what would be required of them.

The cases on the civil docket were then proceeded in.

John Francis, Trustee of N. S. Rogers vs. George Lambert. This was an action for the recovery of the proceeds of certain oil and skins said to have been sent from the Falkland Islands, in 1836, to the Df, to be sold on account of the owner. Francis was a hand on board the vessel, and assigned his interest to Mr. Rogers. The defence was that Lambert sold the oil and skins, and paid Francis his part of the proceeds, before receiving any assignment to him G. Turner and C. G. Perry for Plaintiff and H. Y. Cranston & Son for Defendant.

Verdict for Plaintiff $110 and costs.

Samuel Negus vs. Bridget Barker. Action of Assumpsit. W. P. Sheffield for Plaintiff, T. G. Coffin, of New Bedford, for Defendant. Plaintiff discontinued after opening Frederick R. Francis, Trustee, vs. George Lambert. The matter in this case involved the same questions as in the one above against the same Df.

G. Turner and C. G. Perry for Plaintiff, H. Y. Cranston & Son for Defendant.

Two fellows were arrested last evening for stealing some jewelry from the store of William S. Nichols, Esq.

UNKNOWN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM THE STATE PRISON.—Some days since, as we learn from the Post, a prisoner by the name of Bryant, came near making his escape from the State Prison, at Chatham, in the following manner:—He placed in his bed something so nearly resembling himself, that when his cell was examined at night, he was thought to be there sound asleep, while in fact he was in the yard. The officer on duty discovered him moving about on the outside, and took him back to his old quarters.

HABITS OF JERRY LIND. A personal friend of Miss Lind says that she is remarkably temperate in all things, carefully avoiding all stimulants of every description. She is an early riser, bathes every morning regularly winter and summer, exercises much in the open air. She dresses with a view to comfort rather than show, religiously avoiding tight lacing. She partakes freely of the plainest food, using much fruit. She attributes her uniform good health to her temperate mode of living, she seldom having occasion to consult a physician.

BREWER KILL.—We learn that this well known burglar and counterfeiter, now in the State Prison at Windsor, Vt., bears his confinement but poorly, and has already lost about twenty pounds of flesh. He is kept at work manufacturing needles. He has attached to his leg a log to prevent his escape, and though his work is not laborious, it severely affects his constitution, and will probably in time break him down. He maintains a perfect amateur, and is exceedingly civil to the officers of the institution—but it is evident that he pines for the excitement of active life. [Saturday Eve. Gazette.]

SEVERANCE OF MILLS. Owing to the depression of the cotton manufactures, notice was given, on Wednesday, of a reduction of wages in nearly all of the mills in this place. On the notice being made known, a portion of the operatives in the Metacomb, Annawan, White, the Quaquechan, Pocasset, and the Massachusetts Steam Mills quit work, which brought things to a stand still. The Waputta and the Troy Mills continue to run, and we learn also that a part of the Annawan and White Mills are in operation. This event has been looked for, as the high price of cotton, and the lack of demand for cloth, made it impossible to run the mills at former prices, except at great loss. [Fall River Monitor.]

A WORLD'S FAIR SPECULATION.—Some idea of the extent of the great London Fair may be formed from the fact, that the privilege of printing the Catalogue has been purchased by the Messrs. Clowes, at a premium of $20,000, in addition to two pence for every copy sold, to be applied towards the expenses of the exhibition. But another will be printed in several languages, and be sold at ten shillings per copy.

A LARGE CORPS OF ENGINEERS, under the direction of Major Barnard, of the Army, is about starting for the isthmus of Tehuantepec, to make the necessary surveys for a railroad, about to be constructed by the citizens of New Orleans.

SALEM, MASS., NOV. 25.

Captain Waters of the bark Chusca, (previously reported) from the West coast of Africa, states that the English bark purchased of the Danes the place known as "Daniel Accra" for £10,000, and that they have already taken possession.

The brig Draco, from the Rio Grande (Brazil) has arrived. Capt. Zurbach reports that a new arrangement had been made by which all vessels are now thoroughly searched at the bar, no alteration of manifests being allowed.

A channel was in process of digging for the entrance of vessels by the South, which would be completed in about two months and give twelve feet of water.

SALEM, Nov. 25th, 1850.

The barque Tom Corwin from Zanzibar August 14th, Marunga Sept. 11th, and St. Helena Oct. 11th, reports at Zanzibar brig Sacramento, Congdon, from New York, via Cape Town, for Mozambique, &c. The U. S. brig Perry, from the coast of Africa, was at St. Helena about Sept. 1st.

Boston, Monday, Nov. 25.

The list of signers to the call for a Union meeting, to be held here at Faneuil Hall to-morrow afternoon, embraces about 3000 names of all parties.

Captain Ballard, of the ship Rambler, of this port, from Singapore, July 12th, reports having experienced a violent submarine earthquake on the 29th of October at 4 A.M., in lat. 14 30 N, lon. 54 30 W.

Boston, Monday, Nov. 25.

The official vote of the state has been declared. Wm. Appleton, Whig for Congress in the 1st district, and Orin Fowler, do, in the 9th, are elected by handsome majorities.

The majority for Horace Mann in the 4th has been shaved down to 40. No choice has been effected in the other districts.

Baltimore, Nov. 25.

A destructive fire occurred this morning on Baltimore street, entirely destroying J. C. Winsther's gentleman's furnishing store; the loss on which is $10,000, partially insured.

The saddlery store of Thos. H. Hunt, adjoining, was also damaged.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, 1850.

Members of Congress are arriving by almost every boat, preparatory to the opening of the second session of the Thirty-first Congress. Among them are Hon. E. C. Cabell, Florida; Truman Smith, and W. P. Mangum.

A bill has been introduced in the North Carolina Legislature, taxing Northern manufactures brought into that state.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25th.

It is rumored that the Secretary of the Treasury will call for an additional loan to meet the expenses of the Government.

A new banking institution is soon to go in operation, under the firm of Selden, Withers & Co.

R. McAlpin has received the appointment of superintendent of the mint at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25th.

It is reported that the President has ordered a marshal, to Louisiana for the arrest of Gen. Quitman on a charge of treason in purchasing arms for Gen. Lopez. [Doubtful.]

WASHINGTON, Monday, Nov. 25, 1850.

A private dispatch received here from Georgia says that great excitement prevails at Savannah in consequence of a steamer being chartered to convey several companies of United States troops to Charleston, S. C. Nothing definite or satisfactory can be ascertained here as to whether such an order has been given.

F. K. Frost of Chicago has been appointed to a Thirteen Hundred Dollar Clerkship, in place of Addison, removed. Messrs. Albert and Grandin, (Opposition) have been dropped as employers at the Treasury Department.

WORCESTER, Nov. 25.

The result of the election for Representatives in Springfield, is as follows: Coalition, 1001; Whig, 827. The Coalition candidates are elected by about 100 majority.

In Blackstone, Calvin Thayer, Free Soil, is elected by six majority.

In Dudley, Worcester County, H. H. Stephens, Democrat, is elected.

"It is a curious fact," says some etymologist, "that it is only the female mosquito that torments us." A bachelor friend at our elbow says it is not at all "curious."

A BRAWLING disunionistries afloat for "justice—justice." Is there no hemp in that region?

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted,—That whereas the light-house on Minots ledge is completed and in operation, the one at Scituate be therefore suspended during such time as the one on Minots ledge is lighted.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted,—That if such person as the Secretary of the Treasury shall designate shall report, in any of the cases herein provided for, that preliminary surveys are necessary to determine the site of a proposed light-house of light-boat beacon or buoy, or to ascertain more fully what the public exigency demands, the Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon appoint one or more officers of the United States revenue service, to perform the required duty.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted,—That all such reports shall, as speedily as may be, be laid before the Secretary of the Treasury, and if such as to authorize the work without further legislation, he shall forthwith proceed with it, otherwise such reports shall be laid before Congress, at the next ensuing session; but in all cases where such person as the Secretary of the Treasury shall designate does not report such preliminary examination as expedient, the provisions of this act shall without delay be carried into execution.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted,—That hereafter all buoys along the coast, or in bays, harbors, sounds, or channels, shall be colored and numbered, so that passing up the coast or sound, or entering the bay, harbor, or channel, red buoys with even numbers shall be passed on the starboard hand, black buoys with uneven numbers on the port hand, and buoys with red and black stripes on either hand. Buoys in channel ways to be covered with alternate white and black perpendicular stripes.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted,—That there shall be allowed to collectors, when acting as superintendents of light-houses, beacons, light-boats, and buoys, the same rate of commission on the disbursement of the aforesaid appropriations, as were allowed and paid for the year ending fourth of March, eighteen hundred and forty-nine: Provided, That no collector shall receive for his services as superintendent aforesaid, over the sum of four hundred dollars per annum: And provided, further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall assign to the collectors the superintendence of such light-houses, beacons, light-boats and buoys as he may judge best and most convenient for the public interest.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted,—That there be, and hereby is, appropriated the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to purchase a steamer to be employed in the coast survey upon the Pacific coast, and used if deemed expedient in designating the sites of the several light-houses provided for in California.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted,—That the sum of two thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to pay the balance due to M. La Point, of Paris, for the light at Sautey Head, Nantucket. Approved September 23, 1850.
